

The Pelvic Floor Society National Conference

Thursday 10th November – Friday 11th November 2022

Taking place at Winstanley House, Leicester.

Thursday 10 th November
09.00	Registration with tea & coffee
09.15	Welcome and Introduction	Ms Carolynne Vaizey, Consultant Colorectal Surgeon & Chair of PFS

Session 1: Equality, Diversity and Inclusivity (EDI) in Pelvic Floor Services

Chairs: Mr Shahab Siddiqi & Ms Samantha Arnull

9.30	The GRACE Project: Learning from women's experiences of anal incontinence after vaginal birth	Dr Sarah Hillman & Dr Abi Eccles. Principal Investigators, GRACE project
9.45	EDI & Obstetric Anal Sphincter Injuries	Dr Angie Doshani. Consultant Obstetrics & Gynaecology Leicester.
10.00	Reporting and measuring EDI data: Current and Past databases & trials.	Ms Kiran Altaf. Consultant Colorectal Surgeon Liverpool & ACP EDI committee.
10.15	EDI in urology	Mr Jaskarn Rai. Consultant Urologist Leicester
10.30	Discussion, Q&A Session
10.45	Tea and Coffee

Session 2: Female Genital Mutilation (FGM)

Chairs: Ms Julie Cornish, Ms Kate Walsh

11.30	FGM – what every pelvic floor specialist needs to know	Freedom Charity, Ms Aneeta Prem
12.30	Lunch

Session 3: Looking deeper into the pelvis: Radiology in Pelvic Floor conditions

Chairs: Mr Christopher Mann & Ms Catherine Boereboom

13.30	How to set up for 'gold-standard' defaecating proctograms.	Mr Michael North. Radiographer Oxford University Hospitals.
13.45	Interpretations of images in Defaecating & MR-proctograms.	Dr David Tarver. Consultant Radiologist Poole.
14.00	Defaecating Proctograms vs MR-proctograms.	Dr Sarah Hudson. Consultant Radiologist Leicester
14.15	Gut Transit studies: What is the best protocol and how to interpret?	Dr Mark Scott. Senior Clinical Scientist. Queen Mary University London
14.45	Discussion, Questions & Answers
15.00	Tea & Coffee

Session 4: Sexuality and Pelvic Floor Conditions – Let's talk about sex

Chairs: Ms Aneta Obloza & Mr Charles Maxwell-Armstrong

15.30	What do patients want? Patient perspectives from qualitative interviews & How do we assess sexual function in PF conditions?	Ms Simona Fourie, Researcher Oxford University Hospitals
16.00	Anal Sex and Young Women – Is there a problem?	Ms Lesley Hunt. Consultant Colorectal Surgeon Sheffield
16.30	Q&A
17.00	Close of day

19.00	Gala Dinner at the National Space Centre
-------	--

P.T.O. for Friday 11th November Programme

Friday 11 th November
08.30	Registration with tea & coffee
09.00	Updates on current PF trials and Research	Mr Tom Dudding. Consultant Colorectal Surgeon Southampton
09.30	TPFS Annual General Meeting	Ms Julie Cornish. Consultant Colorectal Surgeon Cardiff
10.30	Tea & Coffee

Session 5: Technical Notes – How the experts do it?

Chairs: Ms Dorin Ziyaie, Mr Tom Dudding

11.00	Laparoscopic & Robotic Suture Rectopexy	Mr Wesley Lai. Consultant Colorectal Surgeon Plymouth & Professor David Jayne. Professor of Surgery Leeds.
11.30	Altemeier Procedure with Perineal Reconstruction	Mr Andrew Williams. Consultant Colorectal Surgeon. Guy's and St. Thomas London
11.45	Anal Sphincter Repair	Ms Karen Telford. Consultant Colorectal Surgeon Manchester
12.00	Internal Delormes Repair	Ms Kim Gorissen. Consultant Colorectal & EG Surgeon Oxford University Hospitals.
12.15	Q&A Session
12.30	Lunch
13.30	National Registration Requirements: Update on the NHS digital Database	Mr Jonathan Randall. Consultant Colorectal Surgeon, Bristol
14.00	Consultants Corner & MDT discussions on complex cases. Case 1: Mr Sandeep Singh. Oxford Case 2: Dr Ana Morais. Leicester Chairs: Mr Andrew Williams, Ms Carmen Hoh	Panel: Ms Karen Telford (Consultant Colorectal Surgeon, Manchester), Professor Steven Brown (Professor of Surgery & Consultant Colorectal Surgeon, Sheffield), Mr Rod Teo (Consultant Urogynaecology, Leicester), Ms Jenny Horrigan (Senior Physiotherapist, Leicester)
15.00	Close of Meeting

